It will be a sight this fall to see a workingman marching in a Democratic parade, shouting for the sugar tariff and the Democratic golden era soup-houses.

This Democratic hippodrome ought to make the McKinley tin coffin, the "golden era," "dollar wheat" and the bettered condition of American workingmen a feature of the show.

It was a good deal easier to vote for a change in 1892 than it will be in a few weeks, as the result of the Democratic sugar tariff, to pay $1 for 15 pounds of sugar. This means that it is easier to follow one's prejudices than it is to exercise one's cool judgment or face a cold fact.

The Democratic campaigners, in 1892, told business men and workingmen what a glorious era of prosperity the Democratic party would give the country if it came into power. Go to the grand rally to be held in Decatur on the 13th, and the same ducks will make you the same promises. And they will make them again in 1896.

There is one person we are dead sure, cannot be fooled again by Democratic promises. That person is Queen Liloukalani of Hawaii. She knows enough not to be fooled twice by the same people. She can discern a condition when it confronts her and she has run up against it which we fear is more than can be said for many of our American people who assume to be intelligent.

If business adjusts itself to the new tariff and goes on as best it can, workingmen will have to stand a reduction in wages. If business does not adjust itself, either on account of the refusal of workingmen to submit to a reduction of wages, or because it cannot, on account of the ruinous foreign competition the new tariff bill opens up by letting into this market the peddlers of foreign goods, then labor, in a ruinous degree, will have to stand idleness. This is the legacy of a party that does not know how to legislate for its own country.

There is still an occasional workingman who says the tariff on imports has nothing to do with wages or the price of the necessities of life. Let that man try buying 20 pounds of sugar for one dollar as he did under the McKinley tariff and then let him say whether there is a difference or not. Or, let him look for a job at the price per day he got in 1892 and see whether he can discover any difference. If he can't then he ought to vote the Democratic ticket by all means as that party promises it has only begun to tinker with the tariff.

Louisiana Democrats See Light.
While the masses of Democrats, though having been misled by their leaders, are honest in their convictions, there is no disputing the fact the kind of tariff advocated by the Democratic party means intentional injury to American industries and American prosperity. This fact has been established by the appeal made by Cleveland in his message to congress in which he asks every Democrat in congress to vote for tariff reform, regardless of the injury that it may bring to the industries in his district.

Hundreds of honest Democrats, from almost every congressional district, appeared before the committee of ways and means and begged that committee to let the McKinley tariff law alone, pleading that to lower the tariff would seriously cripple their industries, hurt labor, and impair the consuming power of the people.

Now comes the sugar planters of Democratic Louisiana, all Democrats themselves, and in mass meetings are declaring that the Democratic tariff policy is antagonistic to the interests of American business. They have been brought face to face with the cold facts and their faith in the Democratic party has been disrupted. At Donaldsonville, La., a meeting was held this week at which 500 Democratic planters, merchants and others were present. Protection speeches were the order, and the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Recent adverse tariff legislation and threats of free sugar clearly indicate that the dominant faction of the national Democratic party is bent upon a policy that will lead to the destruction of our industries and the impoverishment of our people; therefore be it
Resolved, That we cannot in justice to ourselves vote for any candidate who is not pledged to the protection of sugar, rice, lumber, salt, and all other great American industries.
Resolved, That our candidate must be free to vote for a Speaker of the House and to effect an organization favorable to protection, no matter to what political party said Speaker may belong.

Several other meetings in different parts of the state will be held next week. Louisiana, has found out, pretty late, however, that the Democratic tariff theory is not only barren, but absolutely destructive to the business of the country. This fact the Republican party has held up before the Louisianians and others who are not Republicans for over thirty years, but they refused, being blinded by prejudice, to believe it. They have now had a taste of Democratic legislation, and now they are ready, when the infamous un-American theory is on our statute books, to exclaim that the half had never been told. They don't want to see the American prosperity killed by our own people, represented in our own Democratic party, and they are ready to aid in undoing the wrong, they were a party to, by defeating the Democratic free traders. There are hundreds of thousands of Democrats in this broad land whose eyes have been opened, and who have independence enough not to go another step with the Democratic party. The defeat of the Democratic party is in the interest of American prosperity. Its retention in power is against American prosperity and in the interest of European prosperity at our expense.

Salt and Sugar.
In 1892 salt sold at retail for about 90 cents for 280 pounds. The tariff on that article under the McKinley law was 8 cents per one hundred pounds. The Democratic campaigners howled at every cross roads about the tariff on salt. The same year 20 to 22 pounds of granulated sugar was retailed to customers for 81. Under the McKinley law sugar was free and had been reduced in price from 12 pounds for $1 to the foregoing figures by removing the tariff.

Salt had been reduced in price to the consumer from 1 cent a pound in 1890 to 1-3 of a cent a pound by a protective tariff, that limited the importation of salt from abroad, and which gave our people a chance to build up the salt industry at home, thereby creating a competition; but the Democratic campaigners cried that the tariff on salt was a tax and that salt ought to be made free.

The tariff on sugar was always a revenue tariff and did not operate to make sugar much cheaper, as was the case with salt, which had a protective tariff, for the reason that we could not produce one-tenth of the sugar we consumed and were forced to import the balance we consumed, and hence had no home competition in our limited sugar industry. The duty on sugar was, therefore, a purely revenue duty which was added to the cost to the consumer. The Republicans, however, true to their practice in tariff matters, as soon as they thought the government could stand the loss of revenue derived from sugar—as they did in 1890 made it free under the McKinley act. The Democratic campaigners first said this would not make the poor man's sugar any cheaper, unless he used the crudest kind of brown sugar; but the poor man did, nevertheless, find that he could buy, instead of 12 pounds of granulated sugar for one dollar, 20 to 22 pounds for one dollar.

But the Democratic statesmen who claimed to know how to legislate for the poor man came into power and they made salt free and taxed sugar. This will not make salt any cheaper but it will make sugar dearer. Instead of getting 20 pounds for a dollar, in a little while the poor man will get only 15 pounds for a dollar. Considering the fact that there is only one pound of salt used by our people where they use 75 pounds of sugar, poor laboring men will not be likely to tumble over each other to parade and vote with a party that produces such legislation.

He was in the habit of keeping odd cigars, chocolates and things of that sort lying around his office desk, and the clerks, messengers and office boy were in the habit of helping themselves without so much as asking the privilege. It was sometime before he took any official notice of it. But of late he could scarcely turn around before everything finally extended to the disappearance of little boxes of bon-bons purchased for his wife he began to inquire into it. "It's that boy," suggested the clerk. "Indeed, I never tell 'em," said the boy. "Everybody what comes along bites into everything."

The next day the proprietor brought home some doctored lozenges and went out to lunch, leaving a box half full on his desk in plain sight. About an hour after his return to the office one of the clerks in the next room came in and asked to be excused for the rest of the day on account of illness. As soon as the man had gone an investigation of the lozenge box betrayed the fact that all had disappeared. He rang his bell and the office boy appeared, pale and trembling.

"Here, Billy," says he, "I left some lozenges on my desk at noon—I hope you—"

"No, sir, I didn't see 'em."

"I'm glad of that," said the employer. "Of course, you wouldn't have touched them. I was afraid that you might have done so. Not that they were of any value particularly, but because they were fixed up for cat medicine. You see—"

But Billy suddenly bolted for the door. His unceremonious exit was immediately followed by the entrance of another clerk. He was accompanied by a man friend, and both looked highly embarrassed and uneasy. Billy had rushed in upon them and told them in an awfully whisper that they had all been poisoned. They manfully faced this music.

"I—we—that is—"

"Ah, I see!" interrupted the boss. "You, too, have been eating my cat medicine!" He tried to look serious, but his is not a serious nature, and he laughed instead. The young men began to brace up.

"Then they ain't—were not poisoned?" Billy says they were fixed for rats, sir. I know we oughtn't to have eaten them, but—"

"Oh, they were not exactly poisoned, but—lets see (he dug out his watch)—if you'll go down to the corner drug store and take an emetic you'll be all right in a short time."

Both young men disappeared in a twinkling, and the laughing old practical joker leaned back in his chair and lighted a fresh cigar. "It is well enough not to let them off too easily," he soliloquized. "They'd have gotten over it in about another minute."

There are no more petty pilferings around that office. But then that office boy has never come back.—N. Y. Herald.

THEIR NEW SYSTEM.

So many thousands are already acquainted with this new mode of treatment that it is only necessary to say by this method an equilibrium of the vital powers is at once established and an equilibrium of the circulation maintained. Thus nature is enabled to throw off the effete matter. Medicine will act like a charm, and health at once ensue, if the case be a curable one.

Their experience in the Great Medical Schools and Hospitals of Europe and this country, together with their extensive special practice, enables them to treat the diseases they make their specialty understandingly and with phenomenal success. They do not claim to cure everything, like some physicians. Bear this in mind. Call and see for yourself. They do not practice deception. They use nothing but the latest and most improved treatment in foreign hospitals—nearly all medicines new.

The Greatest of All Gifts—The Power of Diagnosing Diseases.

They know they are the greatest diagnosticians in the world. They have a national reputation for diagnosing the most complicated diseases.

By their keen perception and intuition they are enabled to fathom the most complicated diseases and reveal to the sick the true fountain and cause of their suffering, where other physicians have failed and were groping in darkness.

By their correct understanding of each and every case, they are enabled to cure hundreds of diseases given up by the general practitioner.

CATARRH.—This disease, which is generally considered incurable by the general practitioner and receives only temporary benefit from his remedies, is speedily and permanently cured by their famous Germicidal treatment. They rarely find a case they cannot cure.

Over 10,000 Cured of Nervous, Chronic, Throat and Catarrhal Diseases in Ten Years.—They treat Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat troubles, Ringing in Ears, Catarrhal deafness, Stomach, Liver, Kidney, Bladder and Female diseases, Eruptions, Skin troubles, Epilepsy, Seminal Weakness, Night Losses, Nervous Exhaustion, General and Local Debility, etc. They restore Impaired Vital Energy, Invigorate the Debilitated Constitution, Stimulate the Organic Action, Promote the Circulation and Renew that Vital Energy, the loss of which is the symptom of decay.

What is it? and How Do They Do it? are Questions Asked by Hundreds of People.—They can refer you to hundreds of persons whom they have treated and cured. If you have been humbugged or badly treated, do not wait for a more convenient season, but come at once and put their wonderful power to the test. You will never regret it. Remember the date.

Consultation Private and FREE to All.

They will treat you honestly, and positively will not throw out any false hopes nor take your case if they can not cure you. If your case is incurable they will frankly and honestly tell you so; also caution you against spending money for medicines, which impostors usually suggest. Charges shall be reasonable and within the reach of all.

OHIO WOOLGROWERS

Hold Their Thirtieth Annual Convention at Columbus.

THEY DEMOONCE THE NEW TARIFF LAW

As Destructive of all Property Values and Worse than Anarchy—A Strongly-Worded Address Adopted by Practical Unanimity.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 6.—The thirtieth annual convention of the Ohio Woolgrowers' association was held last evening in the large hall in the State Fair grounds. There were about 100 members present. Judge William Lawrence, of Bellefontaine, president of the association, made the principal address, after alluding to the alarming tariff conditions which he said threatened the destruction of the sheep husbandry business in the United States. He proceeded to denounce the United States senate, referring to the democratic members of it as "the silent conspirators."

"Anarchy," he said, "is the destruction of the government; but here is the government itself professing respect for vested rights, enacting laws for the destruction of property, which is worse in principle than anarchy, as the latter only destroys the ownership while the former annihilates."

After President Lawrence's annual address an address or special appeal to woolgrowers, farmers and people in general was read and adopted.

D. E. Williams, a Licking county woolgrower, opposed the address, saying it would be useless to try to get the people to go back to protected wool after having a taste of free wool, and suggested that the woolgrowers would better prepare to get along under the conditions of the new tariff bill. He predicted that he was opposed by many members, and the discussion grew very personal. David Harpster, the wool king of Wyandotte county, sharply denouncing Mr. Williams, who is a young woolgrower and a democrat, as a "Smart Aleck." The address was adopted with but one dissenting vote—that of Mr. Williams. The following is the address in full:

"The Ohio Woolgrowers' association at this, its first meeting, September 5, 1894, after the Gorman tariff act of August 24 became a law, takes occasion to make this brief appeal to the woolgrowers and other farmers and people of the United States. For seventy-eight years there have been high-tariff duties, more or less protective, upon wool. The Gorman law not only denies woolgrowers the benefit of a tariff for revenue, but places wool on the free list, though not one citizen, by petition to congress, asked it. Until President Cleveland's free-wool message in December 1887, all the political parties favored protection for the wool industry. The price of foreign wool imports is now so low that without protective duties, American woolgrowers cannot successfully compete with them. Free wool as a permanent policy would substantially destroy the American wool industry, and in a large measure annihilate the capital invested therein. The threat of free wool has reduced the value of our 45,000,000 sheep nearly 50 per cent, and reduced the price of the wool clip of 1894 more than $30,000,000 below the normal, under adequate protection.

"The Gorman-law attack on agricultural interests is aggravated by the fact that the odious Whisky trust and the Sugar trust and others are amply provided for, and protection professedly if not actually adequate is given to most of our manufacturing industries, and free coal, iron ore and other raw materials. Free wool is an infamous and odious discrimination and conspiracy against all our agricultural industries.

"As a permanent policy it would drive 1,000,000 of wool growers from sheep husbandry into increased production of hay, wheat, corn, oats, cotton and other products, destroy our sheep and reduce the demand they would make for food and thus add to our existing over-production and low prices. The ruin of still further over-production. This would take from all farmers a large measure of their just income and render them unable to patronize merchants, grocers, mechanics, schools and churches. All industrial and other classes would be involved in common disaster. Free wool is a blow at civilization and progress. Immense imports of low-priced wools would supplant to a large extent the use of cotton and thus bring disaster to the planters of the south.

"In 1893 the imports for consumption of the third-class wools were 133,197,381 pounds at a valuation of 7.75 cents per pound. Why is free wool thrust upon the country? Not one of all the senators who voted for the Gorman bill ventured to give any reason in support of free wool. Their silence is a confession of its injustice and that it means ruin. It is a conspiracy with four purposes:

1. To add to existing over-production of cereals, cotton and other farm products and still further reduce prices already ruinously low.
2. To alienate wool growers from the protective policy and thus enlarge the policy of free trade.
3. With cheap foreign wool and protective duties on manufactures, to limit manufacturing to the eastern cities and New England states.
4. Its political purpose is to win to the democratic-Gorman party a few New England states and punish the protective wool-growing states.

"The pretense of cheaper clothing is false and fraudulent. With the destruction of American flocks and with manufacturing limited to a narrow section, combinations and trusts would export from the people with a monopoly of wool and woolen goods. The government must have revenue. It not derived from duties, the people will pay in some other form. The wool tariff yielded in 1893, $3,147,319.

"The Gorman bill surrenders the wool tariff revenue but imposes five times greater burdens by a tariff tax on sugar of $40,000,000 annually.

"We endorse the doctrine announced by the National Grange, that while protection is accorded to any industry, it should also be to wool.

"Full and adequate protection for the wool industry would soon increase our 45,000,000 sheep to a required 110,000,000, furnishing $50,000,000 pounds of wool annually—all needed, and we would import none. This would save an annual export of gold of $60,000,000 or more to buy foreign wool from countries which take substantially nothing from us in return but gold.

"It would keep our finances on a solid basis. It would make such an increased demand for pasturage, hay, oats and corn as to increase these products and thus secure for the farmer an enlarged market for his products. It would enlarge the resources of more than 30,000,000 of the agricultural classes, and thus by their patronage to all other classes give prosperity to all. It has been proved that no foreign wool is needed to mix with ours for successful manufacture.

"What, then, shall woolgrowers do? The free-wool policy cannot be reversed until after 1896. In the meantime sheep cannot be made to pay for the capital invested and labor in producing wool. The true policy is: Eat out the wethers and old ewes, sell them for mutton; keep the breeding ewes, and be ready to rapidly increase the flocks after 1896. Let all people who desire prosperity for Americans rather than foreigners vote for no candidate for congress who does not favor protection equally for all American industries, which by its aid can be made to furnish all needed supplies at fair American prices. The free wool infamy will soon be wiped out, never more to return and the people, painfully admonished by the ruin of the last two years, will not soon demand again a change to the policy which brought it.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE, President.

THE IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

A Whole Day Given Up to the Reading of Papers.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 5.—The morning session and half the afternoon in the irrigation congress was taken up with the reading of papers. The evening session was used up for the same purpose. W. W. Follet, a Denver engineer and geologist, and Robert Hay, of Kansas, discussed the great plains and their water supply.

Papers on Utah irrigation, on water rights and present condition of public lands were read, by Messrs. Samuel Fortier, Moses Blinn, general land office, and F. H. Newell, United States geological survey. California irrigation was presented by Mr. Lip. pincoet and a legal paper on how to increase our irrigation acreage was read by C. F. Kinney, of St. Paul.

The feature of the session was the two speeches by Representative Coffey and Senator Carr, of Wyoming. The former opposed all land cessation and grants or settlement until congress had provided for a full hydrographic survey and division of public lands into a proper water area. His idea was to secure settlers even if settlement was temporarily delayed. Senator Carr made a strong and lucid speech explaining the irrigation land grant act, of which he is the author.

The committee on resolutions has not yet reported but it is stated that their decision is in favor of public lands remaining under federal administration.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 6.—Congressman Breckinridge spoke here last night to an audience of 3,000 people. Many women were present, and the wildest enthusiasm reigned. His address was quite bitter, he denouncing as a lie the statement that he opposed racing in the district of Columbia, which has brought down on him the disfavor of turfmen all over the country.

His wife and her brother, Dr. Scott, of Louisville, sat just behind him when he spoke.

The Breckinridge supporters have become alarmed lest he meet with defeat, and now require their wives and daughters to attend his meetings.

DEBS ET AL. ON TRIAL

Charged With Violating the Court's Injunction

DURING THE RECENT RAILROAD STRIKE

Most of the Day Spent in Discussing Legal Points and Reading Telegrams, 9,000 of Which Were Introduced in Evidence.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Scant progress was made yesterday in the trial of the nine directors of the American Railway union who are charged with violating the injunction issued by Judge Grosvenor and Woods, of the United States court during the recent railroad strike. The defendants include the four officers of the union who are directors ex-officio. All were in court early except President Eugene V. Debs, who it was announced was ill, but later he appeared, looking pale and worn.

Edwin M. Mulford, the principal witness, took with him to the stand a bulky bundle containing 9,000 telegrams alleged to have been sent by the American Railway union during a period of three weeks, most of them being signed "E. V. Debs." These telegrams had in many cases been sent to many distant points from Chicago, and would have cost that sum was charged $9,000. Only half that sum was charged for them, by special arrangement with the Western Union Telegraph Co., of which Mr. Mulford is the Chicago manager. The morning was spent in the discussion of legal points and the afternoon in reading telegrams.

The telegrams were of much the same purport. In most cases they either called on the strikers to stand firm, asked them to organize or give them authority to strike. The witness said he was familiar with Debs' handwriting, and believed only two of the messages were signed by the president. All of them were sent under Debs' "half-rate" frank.

At the Afternoon Session.

The examination of Mr. Mulford was continued. Numerous other telegrams signed "E. V. Debs" were produced. The witness had no knowledge of any of them save that they were filed in the telegraph office.

Judge Woods said the government would have to offer supplementary evidence to prove the telegrams were actually sent by the defendant Debs. All were paid for by the American Railway union and bore initials showing they were sent from the Revere house, where Debs boarded at the time the messages were sent.

A telegram was read from Division Superintendent Seal, of the Mobile and Ohio railroad, asking Debs to "Please release the boycott" on that road. To this Debs replied that he would do so if the road was not a member of the General Managers' association. On being assured it was not, Debs raised the state of siege on the Mobile and Ohio road.

When court adjourned until today, Mr. Mulford was still on the stand.

SECRETARY SMITH ARRESTED.

And Other Members of the St. Louis Bank Note Co. to be Looked After.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Chief Justice of the treasury secret service, received a telegram yesterday announcing the arrest in St. Louis yesterday morning of Secretary Smith, of the St. Louis bank note Co. This company, it will be recalled, printed and engraved the five-dollar and two-dollar warrants of the state of Mississippi, which bore a striking similitude to United States money.

The president of the company will be arrested when he returns to St. Louis, and Agent Holmes, of the Chicago branch will also be looked after. In the meantime the United States district attorney at Jackson, Miss., is preparing a case against the state officials of Mississippi—St. Louis and others, in the same case.

The Mississippi officials refused to call in the warrants, but the fact that they have been declared illegal by the general government has, it is said, had the effect of destroying public confidence in them as money, and the banks refuse longer to take them.

The hearing in the Pullman Charter forfeiture case postponed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Assistant Attorney-General Schofield appeared before Judge Gibbons yesterday afternoon and asked permission to file his amended petition in the matter of quo warranto proceedings against the Pullman Palace Car Co. The judge allowed the petition to be filed, but said he would hear arguments before allowing the filing of information as prayed in the petition. He set the hearing on the point of filing information for September 17.

Mr. Schofield says that he accomplished all that he could expect yesterday afternoon, and he seems to have no doubt as to his being allowed to file the information when the proper time comes.

THE FOREST FIRES.

The Mayor of Ashland Calls for Contributions

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE SUFFERERS.

Only a Strong Wind Needed to Fan the Dying Embers Into Another Whirlwind of Flame—Further Details of the Fire.

ASHLAND, Wis., Sept. 6.—The bodies of the eight who lost their lives at High Bridge have been identified.

The correspondent canvassed a district five miles square in the town of Marengo last night. In this entire district, thirty-two homesteaders lost everything and but three houses remain.

Mayor Hubbell issued the following proclamation yesterday:

To the People of Our City:
An earnest appeal has been made by families of our country who have lost all of their possessions by the devastating forest fires that have recently swept over our country. It has left them not clothing enough to cover
their backs; therefore it is very essential that something should be done at once, in the way of providing clothing, bedding, etc.; also provisions. All who have goods to contribute will please deliver same to the care of Mrs. Shores, in basement of Shores' block, for distribution to the sufferers. Money donations will be thankfully received.
(Signed) F. F. HUMMELL,
Mayor.

Provisions have already been sent to Marengo. Dispatches from Sanborn announce:

"This place is all right, but it has been a hard fight. The town is full of refugees from the surrounding settlements. Best & Bouton lost about 100, 000 feet of logs left on skids at De-Creek. There were about twelve or fifteen homesteaders between Sanborn and Hibon that were burned out and lost everything they had.

"There has been no mail trains through since 6:15 a. m. Saturday, and we do not expect any before next Friday or Saturday. James Morgan, who walked in from Shores' crossing last night, reports that place in a precarious condition again. Fires were burning up to within a few feet of the town,
but the absence of wind gave the people a good fighting chance to save their property."

The Brule correspondent telegraphed
the following to-night:

"News just received of burning homesteads and logging camps along the Lake Shore north of Brule. Contents total loss; air full of smoke. The citizens are constantly on the lookout
for fires."

This is in the vicinity of Port Wing and Cleaveland. The territory is known to have the finest timber in the northwest.

LaCelle, which lies between Ashland and Duluth, brought in the information from Port Wing this morning that only one-third of the place had been destroyed by the fires. But with the fire advancing on the other sides today the village is not yet out of danger.

Iron River, a thriving town midway between Ashland and Duluth, on the Northern Pacific, has anticipated the march of the fires toward her buildings, and sent out a small regiment of volunteer firemen yesterday afternoon
to cut off the path of the flames three miles out by building small back fires.
Iron River was completely wiped out by fire two years ago; and the citizens are alert.

Cleaveland, however, is the object of anxiety to-night. The Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad has a forecast of men laying new track where the long trestle was burned last Saturday near Marengo. The mammoth trestle works will not be rebuilt this season and the crew is simply grading down
for a temporary ground called upon for assistance last night and took an engine a few miles down the track to Shiloh, where he rescued some section men who became surrounded by flames. It is not known how Shiloh has fared since. A brisk wind set in this afternoon, causing considerable excitement and apprehension from fires. The path of the fires has thoroughly dried the remaining vegetation. If the strong winds of to-day continue to-morrow fires will break out again in all of the burned districts.
Once burning over does not seem to prove effective in stopping fires.

From Saxton comes a report that D.
C. Bennett has lost several timber camps in that vicinity, and more losses are anticipated. Owing to the large amount of destitution to look after there has been no organization for looking after settlers and families that are placed among the missing. It will probably be several days before any organized effort along that line can be put forth.

At Shores' Crossing, which was burned at the same time Phillips went up in smoke, determined efforts were necessary to prevent a second burning last night and to-day. Three hundred men thoroughly organized are keeping back the flames from the newly-constructed houses. The flames were within 300 feet of the town at one time
last night.

Wiped Out—Saved by Heroic Efforts.
CHIPPWA FALLS, Wis., Sept. 5.— Fisher, a town near Estella, a small settlement was wiped out yesterday.
John Paul and James Mitchell, two loggers of this city, lost both of their extensive logging outfits and camps
and a large quantity of logs. Loss, $7,000; no insurance.

Warren Flint, of Estella, lost 200 tons of hay. Dan Arrance also lost his horse, barn and crops in the Bruce fire. The Buchanan mill was also destroyed; loss, $2,000, and the Grand Rapids schoolhouse.

The fire is said to be running to wards Murray where danger is appeared.

August Circle, of the Circle State Mill Co., at Thorp, says the town was saved by the heroic men, the losses only amounting to $5,000. The fire he saw were right through the pine forests and destroying more timber than can be learned. If the drought continues for two weeks more, he said, there will not be a stick of pine left in northern Wisconsin.

On the Canadian Side—Several Persons
Burned to Death.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 6.—Fire is burning on both sides of Rainy lake and along Rainy river. Large tracts of timber have burned on the Canadian side. Mrs. Gamsby and four children were burned to death. A man, name unknown, was found in his cabin dead.
He is supposed to have been suffocated
by heat and smoke.

The fires jumped the Rainy river
from the Minnesota to the Canadian side. All settlers back from Rainy river have been burned out, losing everything. Mrs. William Bartley, of Fort Francis, is dead, and Arthur Wright, settler of Rainy river, was found on Sunday dead in bed.

"Rain or Ruin" Must Follow.

ARTIKEN, Minn., Sept. 5.—Fires are around three sides of the town, and the entire fire department is hard at work.
One boy is reported burned to death
from the township of Nordland. There is not one foot of unburned land from Artiken to Mille Lacs lake, a distance of fifteen to twenty miles south, while the burned district north and south
through the pine woods is unknown,
but settlers for fifty miles reported fire then beyond them, and burning fiercely. "Rain or ruin" must follow,
and that soon.

troubled with catarrh of the nose and throat; my nose would stop up first on one side then on the other, and my throat was always sore and it hurt me to swallow. I used every catarrh remedy that I could hear of, but received no benefit longer than I used the medicine. I called on Dr. Coffee five weeks ago and in less than two weeks' treatment I was entirely relieved.

James Cannon, of Harristown, had very severe nose trouble that has stopped up his nose for 2 or 3 years, was relieved by Dr. Coffee at the St. Nicholas Hotel in five minutes and makes him feel like a new man.

Successful Removal of Tumors.
Mrs. H. W. Dolbridge, a well known lady of Harristown, was operated upon by Dr. Coffee, who successfully removed polypous tumors from her nose, greatly to her relief.

Removed a Tumor as Large as an Egg.
One of the most remarkable cases on record is that of William D. Lott, of Mattoon. He had suffered for seven or eight years with deafness and noises in his ears. One physician after another treated him for catarrh, but no relief was obtained. Dr. Coffee pronounced him suffering from Polypus and removed one from his head as large as an egg.
Mr. Lott's relief was unspeakable. He can be reached at Mattoon.

Noises in the Ears.
Alois Elpt was troubled with noises in the ears and deafness, but was very much relieved by Dr. Coffee at the St.
Nicholas.

Deaf for Six Years.
Geo. W. Hudgins of Ludington, Ill., was greatly distressed for six years with deafness and annoying noises in his ears.
One treatment by Dr. Coffee made a wonderful improvement and gave him
much hope for the future.

Suffering at 70 Years.
S. Birkett, the wealthiest farmer at Todd's Point, Shelby county, is 70 years old, and has suffered greatly from ear
catarrh, deafness and noises in the ears.
He spent three days recently in Decatur taking treatment of Dr. Coffee at the St.
Nicholas, and was very much benefitted by him. He feels many years younger by it.

DEAFNESS RELIEVED.
A wonderful cure, according to her friends, is that of Mrs. John Elliott of Mt. Pulaski, who, after suffering for seven years with catarrh, deafness, constant noises in the ear, was much relieved by Dr. Coffee in three days.

Was Deaf and Dumb for Twenty-One Years.
Peter Peck of Cerro Gordo was deaf and dumb for twenty-one years but after one operation by Dr. Coffee, his intelligence was reduced at least one-half.

DEAF AT 84 YEARS.
William Fogarty of Dalton, Missouri county, 84 years old, was deaf and had noises continually in his ears. His hearing was almost completely restored with one treatment by Dr. Coffee.

Great Improvement in Ten Days.
Charles Frazee, living at Walker, Macon county, has been deaf for seven or eight years, but was very much improved in ten days' treatment by Dr.
Coffee. He recommends the doctor's treatment.

Joseph Tillman, 738 East Wood street, almost completely deaf in one ear and was relieved immediately by one treatment with Dr. Coffee at the St. Nicholas.

Mrs. W. H. Brooks of Macon, whose husband is one of the leading men of that section, says: I have treated with several oculists and aurists and spent a great deal of money and had given up all hope of being cured until I called on Dr. Coffee Monday. His treatment made me hear one-third better the first time.

"The Hustler," which in its new shape has taken on a new lease of life claims distinction for several reasons. One of these is the fact that it contains no "living pictures." As the three acts of the piece are crowded with matter that elicits more applause than ever was evoked by a living picture, the managers were wise in resisting the living picture craze which has attacked nearly every farce comedy manager in the country. "The Hustler" is now attracting great crowds in southern cities.

Mr. Grider is well and favorably known as a good workman and it will not be long before he enjoys a trade second to few in the city.
